

AMERICAN MIDWEST BALLET

Donor benefits

As a donor to the region's professional dance company, you're showing your commitment to a high-quality arts environment for your community, and that you support American Midwest Ballet's dedication to professional artistry, education, and community outreach. Also, American Midwest Ballet donors are eligible for a package of distinctive benefits that can include public recognition, special "insider" opportunities, and a uniquely personal connection to one of the region's most exciting professional arts organizations.

Did you know...?

- Ticket sales cover just 1/3 of what it takes to produce our performances and programs
- One pair of pointe shoes costs approximately $75
- One tutu requires 60-90 hours of labor and more than 100 yards of ruffle
